

CRIME INVESTIGATION - SUSPECT PROFILES

Case Reference: GOA-2026-DT-0115

Total Suspects: 11

Each suspect profile begins with 'SUSPECT: Name' as required by the Crime Investigation DSS.

SUSPECT: Victor DCosta

Victor DCosta, age 46, alias Padre. Owner of five beach shacks in Baga and Anjuna. Named by the informant as the head of the network. Previously arrested under the NDPS Act in 2016 and released on bail; the case is still pending. Rs. 40 lakh in unexplained cash deposits across relatives' accounts. Encrypted chats refer to 'Padre' giving instructions. Fled his home before the raid; absconding. Owns the Baga shack where cocaine and cash were found.

SUSPECT: Mikhail Petrov

Mikhail Petrov, age 38. Foreign national on an expired tourist visa, believed to be the main supplier. Fingerprints match those on the MDMA packaging. Escaped before the raid and is absconding; a lookout notice has been issued. Prior deportation from another country for a drug offence in 2019. Payments from Padre traced to his cryptocurrency wallet.

SUSPECT: Rahul Naik

Rahul Naik, age 32. Manager of the Baga shack. Rs. 18 lakh in cash was found in a locked cupboard in his room and he held the key. Seen on CCTV receiving a bag from a taxi driver on the raid night. Phone contains chats about 'blue tablets' and pickup times. Prior arrest for possession in 2021, charges dropped. Was arrested at the scene. No alibi.

SUSPECT: Anthony Fernandes

Anthony Fernandes, age 40. Taxi driver seen delivering a bag to the Baga shack manager at 9:40 PM on CCTV. Phone records show 60 calls with Rahul Naik in one month. Claims he was paid to carry parcels and did not know the contents. Had a prior arrest for transporting ganja in 2018. Fingerprints on the packaging match. Arrested.

SUSPECT: Dilip Borkar

Inspector Dilip Borkar, age 49. Police officer whose name surfaced in the intelligence as the 'inspector friend' mentioned in chats. A relative bought a costly property worth Rs. 85 lakh last year. Phone records show contact with Victor DCosta three days before the raid. Denies any wrongdoing and says the calls were routine intelligence gathering. Departmental inquiry initiated. No prior record.

SUSPECT: Sneha Kamat

Sneha Kamat, age 29. Handles online payments for Victor DCosta's shacks. Two cryptocurrency wallets linked to the network were funded from an account she operates. Says she only handled shack accounting. Cannot explain transfers of Rs. 60 lakh. Was at a family function in Panaji on the raid day, confirmed by relatives. No prior record.

SUSPECT: Yash Malhotra

Yash Malhotra, age 27. Courier who travelled on the Bengaluru-Goa bus on eight occasions matching drug delivery dates. Carried bags for cash payments. Says he believed the parcels contained clothing samples. Prior arrest for possession in 2022. Currently in custody. Fingerprints match those on the LSD packaging.

SUSPECT: Prakash Gaonkar

Prakash Gaonkar, age 51. Fisherman and boat operator. Boat GPS data shows meetings with an offshore vessel twice in two months. Says he was fishing and never boarded another vessel. Received Rs. 3 lakh in cash deposits from unknown sources. No prior record. Cooperating partially.

SUSPECT: Carla Rodrigues

Carla Rodrigues, age 45. Pharmacist who runs a chemist shop near Mapusa. Investigators suspected supply of precursor chemicals but audit of her stock registers showed no irregularities. Her records are complete and she has cooperated fully. Was at her shop during the raid, verified by staff and customers. No prior record. Low suspicion.

SUSPECT: Emily Watson

Emily Watson, age 26. British tourist detained at Anjuna with 2 grams of MDMA for personal use, purchased on the beach. No link to the network. Hotel records and CCTV verify she arrived in Goa only four days earlier. Cooperating. No prior record. Charged only with possession.

SUSPECT: Joseph Pinto

Joseph Pinto, age 41. Cook at the Baga shack who saw large bags carried in at night but was told not to ask questions. Fully cooperative and identified the manager and the taxi driver from photographs. No unexplained cash or deposits. No prior record. Considered a witness.