Case Reference: MNG-2025-CR-0047

Total Suspects: 10

Prepared by: Investigating Officer Ramesh D., Mangaluru City Police

Each suspect profile below follows the required system format. The 'SUSPECT:' prefix marks the beginning of each profile and is used by the Crime Investigation DSS to parse individual suspect records.

SUSPECT: Vikram Kamath

Vikram Kamath, age 44. Director of Operations at Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd. Directly implicated in the victim's audit report for approving fraudulent vendor payments totalling Rs. 14 lakh. Had a heated verbal confrontation with the victim in the office on 10 March 2025, witnessed by three colleagues. Owns a dark blue SUV registered as KA-19-MN-4421. CCTV footage from Bunder Road shows a vehicle matching his SUV near the warehouse on the night of the incident. Claims he was at home with family but wife's statement is inconsistent with neighbour's account. Wears dark formal jackets regularly. Smokes Classic Milds cigarettes. Height: 5 feet 11 inches. Medium-heavy build. Phone records show he was within 1.5 km of Bunder Road at 9:45 PM based on cell tower data. No prior criminal record but has prior civil fraud case filed against him in 2021, later settled out of court. Strong motive: victim's report would have resulted in his arrest and termination.

SUSPECT: Suresh Bhat

Suresh Bhat, age 39. Senior Finance Manager at Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd. Named in victim's audit report for manipulating vendor invoices. Had access to company financial systems and was responsible for approving the dummy vendor accounts flagged in the audit. Was seen arguing with the victim outside the office on 12 March 2025. Claims alibi — says he was at a late-night poker game with friends. Only one friend partially corroborates this, others are unverified. Financial records show unusual personal cash deposits in February and March 2025 totalling Rs. 3.5 lakh. No strong physical evidence directly linking him to the scene. Medium build, height 5 feet 8 inches. Prior dispute with victim over a performance appraisal in 2023. Motive: audit report would have led to criminal investigation and termination.

SUSPECT: Ramesh Nayak

Ramesh Nayak, age 52. Business partner of the victim. Had an unpaid personal loan of Rs. 5 lakh borrowed from the victim 8 months ago. Multiple repayment deadlines were missed. Victim's wife confirmed that arguments over the loan had escalated recently. Ramesh made a verbal threat against the victim in the presence of a mutual friend, Anand Hegde, approximately two weeks before the incident. Alibi: claims he was at his shop in Attavar until 9 PM and then returned home. Shop assistant confirms his presence until 8:45 PM but cannot account for his movements after. No CCTV alibi for the critical 10:00 PM to 11:00 PM window. Owns a motorcycle, not an SUV. No prior criminal record. Motive: financial pressure and fear of legal action over unpaid loan.

SUSPECT: Deepa Nair

Deepa Nair, age 35. Victim's wife. Reported to police voluntarily. Stated that her husband had been stressed and received threatening calls. No known direct conflict with victim. Life insurance policy of Rs. 40 lakh found in victim's name, with Deepa as primary beneficiary. Neighbours report one heated argument between the couple approximately 10 days before the incident, subject unknown. Alibi: was at home with children from 8:00 PM onwards, confirmed by domestic worker who stayed until 9:30 PM and two neighbours who visited briefly. No physical evidence links her to the scene. No criminal record. Currently treated as a witness but life insurance and domestic argument noted for record.

SUSPECT: Praveen D'Souza

Praveen D'Souza, age 31. Former employee of Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd., terminated three weeks before the incident following the victim's internal HR complaint. Victim had recommended Praveen's termination due to his involvement in the dummy vendor scheme. Praveen was publicly vocal about his anger towards the victim on social media, posting veiled threats on Instagram on 5 March 2025. Alibi: claims he was at a bar in Kodialbail with friends from 8 PM to midnight. Two friends corroborate this, but bar CCTV footage for the relevant period is unavailable (camera malfunction reported by bar owner). Medium build, age-consistent description. Has a prior case of criminal intimidation filed against him in 2022, later withdrawn. Phone pinged a tower near Kodialbail at 10:00 PM, which is approximately 4 km from the warehouse. Motive: revenge for job loss.

SUSPECT: Anita Shetty

Anita Shetty, age 27. Junior Accounts Executive at Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd. Was mentioned peripherally in the victim's audit report as someone who may have unknowingly processed fraudulent transactions. Not a key accused. Had a professional working relationship with the victim. No known personal conflict. Alibi: was attending a family wedding in Udupi on the night of 14 March 2025. Multiple family members and photographs confirm her presence throughout the evening. CCTV from the wedding venue confirms she was present from 7 PM to 11:30 PM. No physical evidence links her to the scene. No prior criminal record. No financial motive detected. Low suspicion.

SUSPECT: Kiran Alva

Kiran Alva, age 36. Logistics Supervisor at Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd. Victim's audit report flagged Kiran for approving shipments linked to the dummy vendor accounts. Was questioned by the victim formally two days before the incident. Reacted aggressively during the meeting and had to be asked to leave by HR. Has a prior assault case from 2019 where charges were eventually dropped. Alibi: claims to have been on a night delivery run to Kundapur. Delivery log submitted but GPS tracker on company vehicle shows it was parked at company depot from 9:30 PM onwards, contradicting his statement. Cannot account for his movements between 9:30 PM and 11:30 PM. Owns a dark jacket. Height: 6 feet. Heavy build. Motive: facing termination and possible criminal charges due to audit findings.

SUSPECT: Mohammed Irfan

Mohammed Irfan, age 29. Freelance accountant hired temporarily by Coastal Exports for a quarterly audit reconciliation. Had brief professional contact with the victim. No known personal conflict. Not named in the internal audit report. Alibi: fully verified. Was in Bengaluru attending a chartered accountancy seminar from 13 to 15 March 2025. Hotel check-in records, seminar attendance sheet, and travel tickets all confirm his presence in Bengaluru. Multiple independent witnesses confirm he was at the seminar dinner on the evening of 14 March 2025. No physical evidence. No criminal record. No financial connection to the victim. No motive identified. Completely accounted for during the time of the incident.

SUSPECT: Ganesh Prabhu

Ganesh Prabhu, age 47. Managing Director of Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd. Highest-ranked official implicated in the victim's audit report. The fraudulent vendor scheme could not have operated without his authorization at the MD level. Had attempted to suppress the victim's audit report before it reached external auditors. Known to have called the victim to his office on 11 March 2025 and pressured him to withdraw or modify the report findings, a fact confirmed by the victim's secretary. Claims alibi: was at a private dinner at Hotel Taj Mangaluru from 8 PM to 11 PM. Hotel confirms his booking but staff recall he stepped out briefly around 10:00 PM for approximately 30-40 minutes, returning visibly flustered. Wife was not present. Financial motive: Rs. 28 lakh fraud exposure plus board-level accountability. Has no prior criminal record but has significant resources and motive. Phone shows no activity between 9:50 PM and 10:55 PM — phone switched off or on airplane mode.

SUSPECT: Latha Rodrigues

Latha Rodrigues, age 33. Personal assistant to Ganesh Prabhu. Had access to the victim's audit drafts through the MD's office. Was observed shredding physical documents in the MD's office on 13 March 2025, one day before the incident, an act witnessed and reported by a peon, Raju. Claims the documents were routine office files due for disposal. Alibi: was at home with her mother from 9 PM onwards. Mother confirms this but is considered a dependent witness. No independent corroboration. No physical evidence directly links her to the scene. No prior criminal record. Possible role: information relay or facilitating access to victim's location by passing information to another suspect. Motive: loyalty to MD and self-preservation.
