Case Reference: MNG-2025-CR-0047

Prepared by: Investigating Officer Ramesh D., Mangaluru City Police

Date of Incident: 14 March 2025 | Date of Report: 15 March 2025

1. Victim Information

Name: Arjun Nair. Age: 38 years. Occupation: Senior Accountant at Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd., Mangaluru. Residential address: Flat 4B, Shanthi Residency, Kadri Hills, Mangaluru. Arjun Nair was a well-known professional with no prior criminal record. He was reportedly involved in auditing financial irregularities at his workplace in the weeks leading up to his death. Colleagues describe him as diligent, principled, and someone who had recently uncovered suspected embezzlement within the company. He had confided in a close friend that he feared for his safety after reporting internal financial fraud to management.

2. Incident Summary

On the night of 14 March 2025, at approximately 10:45 PM, Arjun Nair was found fatally injured inside the abandoned Kamath Warehouse, located off Bunder Road, Mangaluru. He had sustained blunt force trauma to the head. A security guard from the adjacent Bunder Fish Market, Govinda Shetty, heard loud arguing followed by a crash at around 10:30 PM and called the police at 10:50 PM. Officers arrived at 11:05 PM and found the victim unconscious. Arjun Nair was transported to KMC Hospital where he was declared dead on arrival at 11:40 PM.

3. Victim's Last Known Movements

According to CCTV footage recovered from a nearby petrol station, Arjun Nair was seen arriving at Bunder Road on his motorcycle at 10:10 PM. His phone records show that he received a call at 9:45 PM from an unregistered number, lasting 3 minutes and 12 seconds. Prior to this, he had attended a dinner meeting with a colleague at Hotel Woodside, Hampankatta, which ended around 9:15 PM. A restaurant staff member confirmed his departure shortly after 9:20 PM. He was alone when he arrived at the warehouse.

4. Known Conflicts and Background

Arjun Nair had recently submitted an internal audit report flagging discrepancies of approximately Rs. 28 lakh in company accounts. This report directly implicated senior management and certain department heads at Coastal Exports Pvt. Ltd. He had also recently received threatening anonymous messages on his work email, which were reported to the company's HR department. His wife, Deepa Nair, stated that her husband had been visibly stressed for the past month and had mentioned receiving threatening phone calls at odd hours. He had a known dispute with a business partner over an unpaid loan of Rs. 5 lakh. Additionally, a former employee he had recommended for termination, due to the same fraud case, had made verbal threats against him two weeks prior.

5. Family and Social Circle

Arjun Nair is survived by his wife Deepa Nair and their two children. He maintained a close social circle including colleagues, university friends, and neighbors. No known domestic disputes were reported. His wife confirmed that he had been unusually secretive about his whereabouts in the two weeks before the incident. He had also recently consulted a lawyer regarding whistleblower protections, suggesting he was aware of potential threats from parties connected to the fraud case.
