

CRIME INVESTIGATION - VICTIM AND INCIDENT REPORT

Case Reference: MYS-2026-MR-0102

Prepared by: Inspector Shivaraj Gowda, Srirangapatna Police Station, Mysuru

Date: Incident: 9 June 2026 | Report: 10 June 2026

1. Victim Information

Victim: Prakash Hegde, age 56, founder of Hegde Constructions, one of the larger real estate developers in Mysuru district. Married to Shalini Hegde, with a daughter Anjali studying in the United States. Known for aggressive land deals and several ongoing property disputes.

2. Incident Summary

On the night of 9 June 2026, Prakash Hegde was found shot dead in the study of his farmhouse near Srirangapatna at 6:40 AM by the caretaker Basavaiah. Two gunshot wounds to the chest and one to the head. Time of death estimated between 10:30 PM and midnight. His own licensed 32 bore revolver, normally kept in the study safe, was missing. The safe was opened with the correct code and showed no signs of forced entry.

3. Circumstances

The victim had driven to the farmhouse alone at about 9:45 PM to meet someone, telling his wife only that it was a business matter. The farm dog was found poisoned earlier that week. The caretaker Basavaiah had permission to attend his daughter's wedding in Hassan that night and was away.

4. Known Conflicts

Prakash Hegde was involved in a Rs. 6 crore land deal dispute with his former partner Ravi Gowda, who publicly accused him of cheating. A local politician, Mahadev Swamy, had made loud public threats over a land acquisition that displaced villagers. His nephew Karthik Hegde was known to have gambling debts and was named in the victim's will. A life insurance policy of Rs. 2 crore named his wife as beneficiary.
